

WEEKLY CONTAINER PLAN

Shape the Week Before Pressure Shapes It

CONTAIN THE WEEK

Choice

This week will either be shaped by pressure or contained by commitment. Choose the aim before requests arrive.
Before saying yes, ask: What is this in service to? Then protect rest, restoration, relief, and responsibility with visible blocks.

Week Number: _____

Dates: Start _____ End _____

1 THIS WEEK'S AIM

Name the direction that governs the week.

Top 3 Priorities

1. _____ 2. _____

2 REST CONTAINER

Protect capacity before the week spends it.

Screens off target: _____ nights

Lights out target: _____ nights

Protected sleep blocks:

M _____ T _____ W _____ Th _____

3 RESTORATION CONTAINER

Plan what gives energy back.

Morning walks:

Day 1 _____ Day 2 _____

Day 3 _____

Energy giving activity: _____

4 RELIEF CONTAINER

Contain pressure without letting relief become escape.

Expected pressure points:

Planned decompression blocks:

Phone or game limit: _____

5 RESPONSIBILITY CONTAINERS

Give each role a clear action and a clear boundary.

Son

Action: _____

Boundary: _____

Career

Action: _____

Partner

Action: _____

Connection: _____

Friend

Action: _____

Publisher

Action: _____

New yes question: _____

24 hr calls: Y / N

6 DRIVER AND SELF

Keep planning, movement, and review inside the week.

Driver planning block: _____

Driver review block: _____

Movement plan: _____

Strength or mobility: _____

7 WEIGHT AUDIT

Separate refusal, responsibility, and overcarrying.

What I must refuse: _____

What I must carry: _____

What I must stop overcarrying: _____

8 END OF WEEK REVIEW

Set the review before the week begins.

Day: _____ Time: _____

Planned in-person event: _____

Rule for relief: _____

Action Steps Summary

1

Set the Aim

Write the weekly aim and use one question before every new yes.

2

Build the Containers

Block rest, restoration, relief, and each key role before pressure arrives.

3

Review the Proof

Name what you carried, refused, overcarried, and will adjust next week.

Final check: Aim named. Priorities chosen. Rest protected. Relief contained. Roles assigned. Review scheduled.